Dance Teams Earn Chances In New York Competition

I Wanna Be a Rockette and Hot Chocolate, two dance teams from New Port Richey, won in their categories during a recent regional competition in Orlando. Both will go to New York in July for national finals. I Wanna Be a Rockette earned platinum-first place, high score overall and the entertainment award. Hot Chocolate earned platinum-first place, high score overall and the critic's choice award. The girls dance at and represent Sells Broadway Dance Center on State Road 54. The teams are looking for donations and sponsors for the New York trip.
